FEW'INCONGRUVIAL" REMARKS

MANYPILE, R.Y., Sep. 7th, 1997.

MANYPILE, R.Y., Sep. 7th, 1997.

The following is the manner the Civil Service Roles, as applied to Mayaville, were observed by the Civil Service Commission at Washington.

Thomas J. Chenoweth, the present Commission at Washington.

The Davis as Substitute Carrier, for the reason that the first was "untild, so much last this person was offensive," and that Charles B. Davis was "rough, noisy and untildy, and that his mind was given to baseball and other matters not connected with his Justices.

The Davis boys were appointed Carriers by Col. Thomas A. Davis, who was Postmaster under Harrison's Administration, and to him belongs the credit of security the Free Mail Dailverys in this city, coming the Free Mail Dailverys in this city, and the commission of the country of the Civil Service were made.

Every man, woman and child in this city knew the charges were absund. The Davis boys denied these unique charges, backed up by every city official, who wrote personal letters to the Civil Service officers refuting the charges. Every person residing on their route signed a petition for their retenino in office, but the Civil Service officers refuting the charges. Every person residing on their route signed a petition for their retenino in office, but the Civil Service Commission in general all civil Service Commission in general and the Service officers refuting the Catholic newspaper published at Columbus, O., which charges were disproved.

Early Worlick, a Cierk, and Charles Thompson, Chief Clerk, were asked for their resignations, which were tendered, anowing they were to be discharged to make room for Democrats. Thompson and Hull were resident and Secretary Orthon and Hull were resident and Secretary of the contrast were appointed on III their place of the Fioral Hall, will be on the ground Tuesday morning at 8:30 for the purpose of receiving goods for the Floral Hall. Patrons will bear in mind and be prompt that everything may be in order and no delay occasioned.

He not only removed the em-ployes as Letter Carriers and Cierks, but he swiped the whole Board of Civil Service Examiners itself! FAIR NOTES.

ome of the Attractions The Maysville Fair Offers to Patrons.

A fact which cannot be too often empha sized relates to the admission fee. Resized relates to the admission rec. Re-member town people and friends outside that the nominal cost of 25 cents admits you absolutely, no extra charge for grand-stand seats. Now we hope this emphatic statement will disperse any dubiousness, and that any past experi ence to the contrary may not be a judg ment of the future.

The Klondike regions of Alaska nothing but gold, the precious metal for which humanlty seems to be striving most today; but did you ever stop to think of the distance and perllous Jour ney, gaunt starvation staring you in the face in attempting to reach that region? Eight thousand miles from Maysville, requiring three months constant journey ing, 1.800 miles of which must be dor by walking or its equivalent. Hundred of pounds of baggage must be carried innumerable privations and hardships en countered at every turn, and last of all is the straw which weighs the camel down
-the bleaching bones of deluded human ity strewn around seem to gaze from eye less skins and warn you to return, or, better still, speaking to you from that distance to remain at home. Now, as a wise man would teach his ward, so we say to you, men or women who reads this do not go to Klondike, but come to Mays ville's Fair, where you will he heartily welcomed, fully paid, and go home with a better return for the fittle money ex pended than for any investment you eve made. Remember, this Falr begins Wed nesday and continues until Saturday, September 23d to 25th. Maysville Fair grounds are noted for their heautiful io cation, the grandstand has comfortable seats, room for seven thousand people, no extra charge to get on, 25 cents admitting you to the Fair. The Fioral Hall will be regal in its garb of mercantile exhibits and rural commodities, to say nothing of the large manufacturing concerns which have already taken space, and promise our visiting friends sights fully worth a much larger exposition. In addition to the ex hihit rings of horses, &c., which the cata iogue contains, a mighty aggregation composed of the following will be in cluded in the one admissoin price which you pay: A Wild West troupe, a balloon ascension, high tower diving, green coun-try roadsters racing for purse of $25, owners to drive, a clay pigeon and live parrow shoot, in which all amateur gun ners are highly interested, splendid mu-sic, free drinking water,—all for the nominal sum mentioned above, while the streetears and railroads will convey you to and from the grounds at the usual fare. These are enumerated to give the public and prospective patrons opportunity to Dr. J. H. Samuel,
